

Costa Rica Standard and Non-Standard Distribution Boxes

Overview

The country does not have a developed postal system with defined street names and numbers, so it is difficult to obtain client lists or reliable addresses. Direct marketing via email, phone, and text messaging is becoming a popular method of outreach. A representative/agent/distributor is any individual or company who "in continuous and autonomous form, with and without legal representation, acts by directly placing sales orders among the local import or export firms, on a commission or percentage basis; or who prepares, promotes, facilitates and completes the sale of merchandise or services whi. Information can be provided via the FCS website, and/or counseling sessions over the telephone, via e-mail or videoconference, or by office appointment. The United States is the single most important agricultural partner for Costa Rica due to its geographical proximity as well as a wide selection of high quality, competitively priced products. However, competition in the Costa Rican market is increasing following implementation of free trade agreements with several countries and blocs, including Me.
