Mozambique Floating Optical Cable

Overview

The northern Mozambican port of Nacala has been linked to the world's largest submarine fibre-optic cable system to improve digital communications, enabling the telecommunications company Vodacom to offer its customers a direct international gateway for faster and more reliable. This study explores the economic impact of the international data connectivity delivered by submarine fiber optic cables ("subsea cables") on Mozambique. Mozambique Telecom (Tmcel), Vodacom and Movitel are the leading operators in Mozambique, each operate their own wireless and.
